5 October	USHPIZIN Israel 2004 (PG) Set in the Haredi community of Jerusalem, this charming and entertaining film has something to say about us humans, through the prism of discovering—or rediscovering—the importance of faith.	plus PARADISE NOW France/Germany/Netherlands/ Israel 2005 (M) An absorbing look at what makes an Islamic suicide bomber. “An engaging and important work, cinematically satisfying and perfectly well performed.”
19 October	GO FOR ZUCKER! Germany 2005 (M) A bittersweet satirical comedy on the relationship between Jewish and non-Jewish Germans, with top performances and a wonderful array of characters.	plus NEIL YOUNG: HEART OF GOLD USA 2006 (G) An intimate portrayal of the legendary artist, from acclaimed director and filmmaker Jonathan Demme. This impressive documentary is Neil Young's trip down memory lane in an enchanting two-night concert in Nashville.
2 November	LIFE IS A MIRACLE Serbia and Montenegro/France 2004 (M) Emir Kusturica’s comedy/drama in which the recent war in the former Yugoslavia gets dubiously replayed as a lusty farce.	To be followed by supper on the forecourt.
